CODE OF CONDUCT

Responsible Services Practices

All staff are trained in dispersing alcohol responsibly and as a patron the decision on the responsible dispersing of alcohol made by a staff member of the hotel is final.

Controlling Intoxicated Persons

The management abides with the liquor Act in that intoxicated persons shall not be allowed to remain on the premises or be served alcohol. Any person caught supplying alcohol to an intoxicated person shall be removed from the premises.

Juveniles

Anybody under the age of 18 years shall not be permitted on these premises at any time. All persons entering these premises must produce on demand photographic identification (WA Drivers Licence, valid passport, and proof of age), and one other form of ID.

Complaints from Customers or Residents

Management will at all times listen to any complaints from the above parties. If after meeting, a resolution cannot be obtained the complainant is welcome to lodge a formal complaint with the liquor licensing authorities of the police.

Patron Care

In keeping with the obligations of responsible service initiatives, management have encouraged the availability of food, non-alcoholic beverages or a free call for a taxi. The premises strive to provide a friendly atmosphere by a zero tolerance of disorderly behaviour. All staff on these premises has received either formal qualifications or in-house training to this effect.

Respect to Neighbours

Please realise that this area is also residential and that excessive noise from existing patrons has an adverse effect on our relationship with these neighbours.

Wednesday

Two levels, festival atmosphere outside, Commercial, KnB Inside and Everything in between upstairs. Check out the famous Wednesday night at Leedy with DJs Rueben, Cornflake and Chase spinning it up.

WHAT'S ON

Friday

Funk Club upstairs; features live bands and DJs everyweek, the best of authentic funk, soul, reggae, jazz and hip hop. Get on up!

Saturday

Dance it up in cages, watch the entertainment and party hard every Saturday night at the Leedy with DJ Morgan and DJ Chase playing Perth's favourite tunes.
